ARTISAN STUDIO TRAIL

Brookfield Craft Center invites you to the Artisan Studio Trail on October 6, 2012, a unique opportunity to explore some of the region's finest artists' studios.

Begin by visiting the Craft Center to pick up a detailed map and directions to the studios open for the tour. While you are there, take some time to enjoy Brookfield Craft Center's Open House. Then enjoy driving through beautiful Fairfield, Litchfield and New Haven counties to your chosen destinations. In each studio, artists will demonstrate their mastery of a given medium, and immerse you in their experience in crafting a work of art. See the accomplishments of the artists' labor by viewing finished fine craft pieces in their studio settings.

BROOKFIELD CRAFT CENTER

welcomes visitors to a breadth of educational programs in the crafts. A not-for-profit organization dedicated to the art of craft since 1954, our mission is to teach and preserve the skills of fine craftsmanship and to enable creativity and personal growth through craft education. We offer adults and teens the opportunity to learn traditional and contemporary craft skills. Students of all levels of experience learn and practice techniques in core craft media, as well as fine art. Our classes and workshops are taught by recognized professionals who bring much experience and creative energy to our unique regional institution. The current class schedule includes classes in jewelry, fiber arts, glass arts, blacksmithing, bladesmithing, ceramics, woodturning, drawing, painting, and professional development.

Located on 2.5 acres on the banks of the Still River, Brookfield Craft Center contains six vintage buildings: a forge, a ceramics barn, a faculty house, glass and woodturning studios in a restored railroad building, a fiber studio, as well as a jewelry studio, River Room and a retail gallery in the historic Mill Building.
